

IMPACTPAPER REC

Boosting separate paper collection

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 690182

Project conference (draft programme)

Enabling the circular economy – boosting separate paper collection

Committee of the Regions, 24 January 2017

Wednesday, January 24 2017 – Project Conference
Time	Topic	Speaker
9:00-9:10	Welcome	Antonio Dobon, Project Coordinator, ITENE
9:10-9:20	Opening by the event host	Christophe Rouillon, Mayor of Coullaines, Member of the Committee of the Regions, (tbc)
9:20-9:30	Opening by European Commission representative	Kestutis Sadauskas, DG Environment Director, European Commission
9:30-10:15	The main outcome of the project: The Good and Best Practice Handbook for the Collection of Paper and Board for Recycling	Bilyana, Spasova, ACR+
10:15-10:30	Questions and Answers
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-11h20	Overview of the project: Partners involved, procedure followed, important milestones	Antonio Dobon, Project Coordinator, ITENE
11:20-11:50	Municipalities have the word – panel discussion on lessons learned throughout the IMPACTPapeRec project	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Mezdra Municipality, Bulgaria</li> <li>- Sfantu Gheorge, Romania</li> <li>- Trivalis , France</li> </ul>
11:50-12:00	Questions and Answers
12:00-12:10	Paper recycling in Poland and the project as seen by a member of the IMPACTPapeRec External Support Committee	Janusz Turski, General Director of the Association of Polish Papermakers
12:10-12:15	Concluding remarks	Antonio Dobon, Project Coordinator, ITENE
12:15-13:15	Lunch

The final conference will be followed by a workshop specifically targeted to municipalities, companies and citizens from countries that did not participate in the project, as well as a workshop for entrepreneurs to boost the future aperture of new business from the development and implementation of innovative solutions on paper collection.